

Membership Verification

The CMS membership card is a convenient reference for members, their families, and participating funeral homes. It is not proof of membership. Eligibility for CMS member benefits is verified through the Cooperative Memorial Society's membership records before member benefits and pricing are applied.

We encourage members to periodically log in to their CMS account or contact our office to confirm that their membership information is accurate and up to date.