

Four Critical Life and Death Documents Every Adult in Alberta Needs

1. Personal Directive

- Purpose: A legal document that allows you to name someone to make personal decisions on your behalf if you become unable to do so due to illness or injury.
- Key Decisions Covered: Health care, accommodation, personal services, and other non-financial matters.
- Why It's Important: Ensures your personal care preferences are honoured and relieves your loved ones from making difficult decisions without guidance.

2. Enduring Power of Attorney

- Purpose: A legal document that designates someone to make financial and legal decisions on your behalf if you lose the mental capacity to do so.
- Key Decisions Covered: Managing your finances, paying bills, selling property, and handling investments.
- Why It's Important: Protects your financial interests and ensures continuity in managing your affairs, avoiding the need for court intervention.

3. Financial Plans (Including Will and Estate Plans)

- Purpose: Comprehensive plans that outline how your assets, property, and financial affairs will be managed and distributed, including the creation of a will.
- Key Components: Naming an executor, guardianship of minor children, asset distribution, and minimizing tax implications.
- Why It's Important: Ensures your wishes are followed, helps avoid family disputes, and can reduce the legal burden on your loved ones.

4. Funeral and Burial Plans

- Purpose: Detailed instructions regarding your preferences for funeral and burial arrangements, including any pre-planning or pre-payment arrangements.
- Key Components: Choice of burial or cremation, type of service, specific wishes for the ceremony, and any prearranged agreements with funeral service providers.
- Why It's Important: Relieves your family from making difficult decisions during a time of grief and ensures that your final wishes are respected. Prepayment

Why These Documents Matter

- Peace of Mind: Having these documents in place ensures your wishes are clearly outlined and followed. Additionally, by pre-purchasing plans, you can save money and spare your loved ones from unnecessary grief and financial burden.
- Avoiding Family Conflict: Clear, legally binding instructions can prevent disagreements and stress among family members.
- Legal Protection: These documents ensure that your personal, financial, and health decisions are respected and legally protected.

Steps to Get Started

1. Consult a Legal Professional: Seek advice from a lawyer or legal advisor experienced in estate planning.
2. Communicate Your Wishes: Discuss your plans with family members, your designated representatives, and your healthcare providers.
3. Store Documents Safely: Keep these documents in a secure place where your executor and representatives can easily access them.

Resources

- Alberta Government Website: Provides forms and information on creating Personal Directives, Enduring Power of Attorney, and Wills. (<https://www.alberta.ca/decision-making-advance-planning>)
- Green Sleeve (Alberta Health Services): Learn more about advance care planning and how to document your healthcare wishes. (<https://myhealth.alberta.ca/advance-care-planning/keep-advance-care-planning-documents-in-a-green-sleeve>)
- Cooperative Memorial Society: Offers support and resources for pre-planning and documenting your final wishes, including an online registry, savings on funeral and burial plans.

Contact Information

- For more information: Visit the Cooperative Memorial Society at <https://www.calgarymemorial.com> or contact us at admin@calgarymemorial.com or 403-248-2044 / 1-800-566-9959

